SUBJECT: Interview with Victim [REDACTED]

On 27 March 2012, Reporting Detective Shawn KENNEDY #21270 met victim [REDACTED] at the Law Office of Henderson Adam, LLC, to conduct an interview regarding his signature appearing on the Consent to Search form dated 02 October 2009 at 0232-0240 hours. Present during this interview were Attorney [REDACTED], who represented [REDACTED] during this criminal trial, and Attorney [REDACTED] who is representing [REDACTED] for his current civil litigation against the City of Chicago. This interview was pre-scheduled after Reporting Detective met with both attorneys on 15 February 2012 to obtain their consent to interview their client. It was understood the interview would be limited in scope to the details surrounding [REDACTED] signature on the aforementioned Consent to Search form. The following is a summary, not necessarily verbatim, of statements made by [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] stated that on 02 October 2009 at approximately 0130 hours, he was stopped by two Chicago police officers in the vicinity of 51st and Cicero. [REDACTED] was present in the vehicle he drove when he was stopped by Chicago police officers. According to [REDACTED] he was handcuffed and detained at that location for approximately one hour. His passenger, [REDACTED] remained at that location for approximately 45 minutes, prior to the Chicago police officers putting her on a CTA bus requesting she leave the area. According to [REDACTED] approximately three other officers arrived at that location, either before or after [REDACTED] left. One officer was a supervisor with a white shirt. According to [REDACTED] he stated he was never asked to sign a Consent to Search form by the supervisor or any other Chicago police officer.

Reporting Detective tendered a copy of the aforementioned Consent to Search form to [REDACTED]. According to [REDACTED] he stated the signature that appeared on the form was not his signature. He further stated he did not print the additional writing that appeared on that form. [REDACTED] said the Chicago police officers transported him to an apartment at a second location in [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated there were no other individuals present at that apartment who could have signed the Consent to Search form. [REDACTED] further stated he remained handcuffed during the entire incident, from the time he was originally stopped by Chicago police officers throughout the time he was later taken to the apartment. [REDACTED] said therefore, he was unable to sign any Consent to Search form with his hands handcuffed behind his back. [REDACTED] also stated the apartment he was relocated to was not his apartment. [REDACTED] said he has been unable to reach [REDACTED] at any of her telephone numbers and have not spoken to her in person. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] did not sign the [REDACTED] to Search form and he did not see any Chicago police officers signed the Consent to Search form. Attorneys [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] not allow [REDACTED] to answer any further questions.

A search via CLEAR Data Warehouse Contact Information Card and Voter Registration; CHRIS Criminal History Report; and Accurint did not associate [REDACTED] with a residential address of [REDACTED]
